Honorable John. S. Bryant U.S. Magistrate Judge Report of Noncompliance on Johnson, Megan Docket No. 3:12-CR-00076-03 November 15, 2012

The defendant appeared before the Honorable Robert E. Wier, U.S. Magistrate Judge, Eastern District of Kentucky, at Lexington, on July 5, 2012, for an Initial Appearance Hearing after she was arrested as to an Indictment out of the Middle District of Tennessee which charged her with Conspiracy to Distribute a Controlled Substance, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1) and 846. A Detention Hearing was held before Magistrate Judge Wier on July 10, 2012, at which time the defendant was released on pretrial supervision with conditions. The defendant made her Initial Appearance in the Middle District of Tennessee before Your Honor on July 18, 2012. She was appointed counsel, arraigned, and released on the same conditions as previously ordered by Judge Wier.

The defendant is currently supervised by the U.S. Probation Office in the Eastern District of Kentucky where she resides.

Special Conditions of Pretrial Release:

Please reference the attached Order Setting Conditions of Release.

VIOLATION(S):

Shall not use or unlawfully possess a narcotic drug or other controlled substances defined in 21 U.S.C. 802, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner.

On November 14, 2012, while in Nashville, Tennessee, for a court appearance before the Honorable Todd J. Campbell, U.S. District Judge, the defendant was drug tested by Pretrial Services. The defendant was positive for Oxycodone. The positive sample was forwarded immediately to Alere Laboratory for confirmation testing. The defendant denied using Oxycodone or any other illegal or controlled substance.

This pretrial services officer informed the defendant's supervising officer in the Eastern District of Kentucky by email of the defendant's presumptive positive for Oxycodone as well as her denial of use. Also by email, the supervising officer responded that the defendant had called her after leaving the pretrial services office in Nashville, Tennessee, and admitted using Oxycodone on one occasion during the previous week.

Current Status of Case:

According to PACER, this case is set for a Change of Plea Hearing before the Honorable Todd J. Campbell, U.S. District Judge, on December 10, 2012, at 9:00 a.m.

Honorable John. S. Bryant U.S. Magistrate Judge Report of Noncompliance on Johnson, Megan Docket No. 3:12-CR-00076-03 November 15, 2012

Probation Officer Action:

According to the pretrial services officer in the Eastern District of Kentucky, the defendant participates in a Suboxone treatment program to assist her in her recovery. Purportedly, the defendant was "between" Suboxone clinics when she relapsed and used Oxycodone. This officer has requested that the defendant be required to participate in contract outpatient treatment in addition to her participation in the Suboxone treatment program. It has also been recommended that the frequency of drug testing be increased for this defendant.

Respectfully Petitioning the Court as Follows:

It is recommended that the Court take no formal action at this time and that Megan Johnson remain on pretrial services supervision and under the same conditions of release. The U. S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the violation.

ADVICE OF PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS

TO THE DEFENDANT:

YOU ARE ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS:

Violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest, a revocation of your release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if you commit a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. This sentence will be consecutive (i.e., in addition to) to any other sentence you receive.

It is a crime punishable by up to ten years in prison, and a $250,000 fine, or both, to: obstruct a criminal investigation; tamper with a witness, victim, or informant; retaliate or attempt to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant; or intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, victim, juror, informant, or officer of the court. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

If, after release, you knowingly fail to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, you may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed. If you are convicted of:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
- (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
- (3) any other felony you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both;
- (4) a misdemeanor -- you will be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender will be consecutive to any other sentence you receive. In addition, a failure to appear or surrender may result in the forfeiture of any bond posted.

Acknowledgment of the Defendant

I acknowledge that I am the defendant in this case and that I am aware of the conditions of release. I promise to obey all conditions of release, to appear as directed, and surrender to serve any sentence imposed. I am aware of the penalties and sanctions set forth above.
